

Human Services Commission-January 15, 2003

Present: Bob Lehman, Libby Egan, Cindy Greyson, Paul Swan, Elmo Midgley, Jan Weber, Eileen Vowles, Louella Mortimer, Phyllis Leon, Ruby Kover, Nancy Hartman, Dorothy Zietlow

Absent: Leroy Wendling

During December there were 8 car trips, 9 bus trips, 195 meals delivered, and 547 people used the Center.

We had a discussion on availability of keys for the Center. Elmo had some made but none of them worked. Ed Fedrowisch declined invitation to join commission due to other commitments. Paul Swan will join.

Committee reports-

Phyllis is keeping a record of those being transported.

Louella reported Hilltoppers thankful for Christmas affairs at Center.

Dorothy inquired about location of her wheel chair. It was folded up in back of bus.

George is showing movies in absence of Leroy. He is also doing Arm Chair travel.

It was suggested that he use the Peninsula Library for videos since they have an extensive collection.

Dorothy is working on a murder drama to be presented in conjunction with the bicentennial Quilt Show September 12 & 13.

Elmo gave a report on Council meeting.

Eileen reported 42 for lunch & 31 stayed for BINGO. Special Valentine lunch on the 13th will be $2. Mystery drawing will be held at the same time. All who sign up from Feb. 1-13 are eligible.

Nancy will check with fire department on building inspection & fire extinguishers.

We discussed possibility of Pine Valley residents attending BINGO. Libby wondered about liability issues.

Cindy volunteered to be a driver for appointments.

The new computer is installed & most data has been transferred. We will be doing a quarterly newsletter soon. A digital camera has been ordered.

The next meeting will be February 19.

Respectfully submitted,

Nancy Hartman
